

Toward Blockchain-Enabled Supply Chains in the Built Environment

28 June 2019 - 9.30 - 17.00
1/23 Exhibition Space
3M Buckley Innovation Centre
Huddersfield, HD1 3BD, UK

You are invited to take part in this CDBB, University of Cambridge and University of Huddersfield supported workshop on the use of the emerging Blockchain technology in the Built Environment, where we will discuss Blockchain implementation opportunities for the industry and some recent reeseach findings.

Speakers

John Palfreyman

Founder, Palfreyman Ventures,
Ex-Blockchain Director, IBM

Dr. Robert Learney

Lead Technologist - Blockchain &
DLT, Digital Catapult

Matthias Geipel

Consultants & Blockchain Experts,
Arup (Germany/UK)

Chris Kinnaird

Consultants & Blockchain Expert,
Arup (Germany/UK)

Manuel Jiménez

Director of Infrastructure, Construction and Real Estate, Grant Thornton (Spain)

Dr. Algan Tezel

Senior Lecturer,
University of Huddersfield

Pedro Febrero

RA, University of Huddersfield,
Founder, Bityond

Agenda

Time	Activity
09:30 - 10:00	Arrival/Coffee/ Networking
10:00 - 10:15	Welcome
10:15 - 11:00	Keynote presentation - What is Blockchain and why should we care? by John Palfreyman
11:00 - 11:45	Keynote presentation - Making Blockchain Happen by Dr. Robert Learney
11:45 - 12:30	Keynote Presentation - Blockchain in the Built Environment by Matthias Geipel and Chris Kinnaird
12:30 - 13:00	Lunch
13:00 - 13:45	Keynote Presentation – Blockchain use cases in the Built Environment: Spanish Experience by Fernando Valero
13:45 - 14:30	Blockchain in construction research findings by Dr. Algan Tezel and Pedro Febrero
14:30 – 14:50	Coffee break
14:50 - 16:20	Discussion and validation
16:20 - 17:00	Networking

Registration

Registration: Free! - You need to register here.
Contact Dr. Algan Tezel for questions and inquiries
(a.tezel@hud.ac.uk)